Disabled Children's Program

Rights and Responsibilities

PLEASE KEEP THIS FOR YOUR INFORMATION

When completing an application for the Medically Handicapped Children's Program, Disabled Children's Program, or Genetically Handicapped Persons Program:

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO:

- Apply and discuss any action taken on your application or case with a worker or supervisor.
- Be assisted in the application process by the person of your choice.
- Expect reasonably prompt action on your application for benefits.
- Receive adequate notice of any action affecting your application or case.
- Have program requirements and benefits fully explained to you.
- Be referred to other private or public agencies.
- See a copy of the program regulations.

YOU HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITY TO:

- Provide complete and accurate information. Providing false information may be subject to criminal penalties under applicable state and federal laws.
- Complete and submit required information prior to eligibility determination at the time of application, annually, or as requested. This may include a copy of your tax returns or other verification of income.
- Apply for and accept any potential benefits you may be eligible to receive.
- Ask questions if you do not understand something about program eligibility.

RIGHT TO APPEAL

You have the right to appeal any action or inaction of any state employee or official with regard to application for or receipt of services. You may appeal because your application for services is denied, is not acted upon with reasonable promptness, or if your services are suspended, reduced, discontinued or terminated.

You (or your representative) have 90 days following the date the notice of action is mailed to request a fair hearing.

In cases of adverse action, DHHS is required to send you adequate and timely notice. If you request an appeal hearing within ten days following the date the notice of action is mailed, DHHS shall not carry out the adverse action until a fair hearing decision is rendered. This regulation does not apply to those situations where only adequate (not timely) notice is required.

This regulation in no way restricts DHHS from continuing normal case activities and implementing changes to your case that are not directly related to the appeal issue.

To file an appeal you may contact the assigned worker. DHHS will explain the appeal procedure and assist you in completing the appeal form. The appeal request must be in writing.

Once you've filed the appeal, arrangements for a hearing will be made and you will be notified of the time and place. You may represent yourself at the hearing or be represented by a legal representative of your choosing.

RIGHT TO BE FREE FROM ABUSE, NEGLECT, OR EXPLOITATION

You have the right to be free from situations which may endanger your life, physical health, or mental health. If you believe you are being abused, neglected or exploited, report your concerns to the proper authorities. This may include the Nebraska Hotline for reporting abuse and neglect: 1-800-652-1999.

RESPONSIBILITY TO REPORT

You must tell your worker within 10 days if:

- You move to a new residence.
- Someone moves in with you.
- Someone leaves your household.
- Your monthly income changes.
